"The Key"

I saw a light
From under the door
I knew that you would be inside
The door was locked and I couldn't get in

So I looked around and found a key
The key didn't unlock the door
So I knocked it down
But I didn't go through

I thought awhile but I didn't go in
I don't know why
But I was scared
I thought the door would lock me inside

The door can hide your fears inside
So don't go through Without knowing why
So lock the door and hide the key

The door stands still When the light shines through The door was open
But I didn't let you in

It seems so easy
When you have the key
Unlock the door
To your insecurity

When I look in your eyes
Stop playing this game
I can see the lies
I thought I knew your name

"Expressoism"

There is something
I like to call
Expressoism
That is when we all Create art
With all your desire
That is on the fringe
From the start
Makes you want to sing
And show your true self
And what it will bring Something
Unique to admire

"Exposed"

Poured emotion
Showers of passion
Color-Line-Shape
Melting together
The final stroke
And the Artist is Exposed

“White Light”

A speck of white light
A sparkle of gold
That's what I give to you each night

Waiting in the background
Of your love

The flame keeps flickering
In the night
And I am wondering if it's Wrong or right

My thoughts got lost in a dream
Floating away to places I've never seen
Why should I keep hiding
In the background of your love

You said we would love forever
I was a fool to think it was true
Now I'm sitting waiting

Standing in the background
Waiting in the background
Of your love

Now all the tears are gone
And many years have past
I know I won't be

“Naked Eyes”

Don't look at life with naked eyes
Secrets will be revealed
If you can see past the lies
The envelope of life is not sealed
When I look in your eyes
I can see the lies
I thought I knew your name

“That Genius”

That genius was A gay heroin addict atheist
It really doesn't matter
And it will never change the fact
That he is still a genius Whatever you may think
You can never take it back

Look at the world through child eyes
Your creative juices you will find
Were always there without the lies
You can not hide
The artist inside

I have looked at death face to face
You said you would never go away
I will put you in your place
Leave me now for some other day

"Games at Midnight"

The times I remember better
Seem so far away
Now it's been so long
Longer then I really knew

Kill your fears
And die inside
Listen close and you will hear
The sounds of your life
Echoing in the night

Playing games at midnight
Where did we go wrong
I knew it was an insight
Into things I didn't know

She may be gone but...
She is in me.
She is in you.
She is everywhere.
Don't forget and you will see.
We still care.

The times I remember
So much sweeter so much better
Times a game you have to play
It will never go away

The times I remember better
Seem so far away
Play games at midnight
Where did we go wrong

Find the key,
To your insecurity,
And fly free.

I knew it was an insight
Into things you wouldn't show

When life gets bad and you feel sad
Wipe the pain with what really matters
Love and joy will make you glad You can live without the haters

When everything looks the same
And it's different every time
I look into your eyes
And I know you are mine

“Islands of the Heart”

I thought I could be stranded
Stranded just with you
Now my heart is empty
Empty without you

So I'm
Stranded on another Island of the heart
All because of you
Nothing left to say nothing left to do

So I'll
Find another way to be free Escaping from this Island
Just you wait and see
But until then I'm stranded on another
Island of the heart

Of all the dreams I had
The things I wanted to say
Come with me be free
I have found another way
To be stranded

You left me here stranded on another
Island of the heart
Stranded because of you
You left here stranded
Stranded without you

I'm stranded
Stranded over you
You left me stranded
On the Island in your heart

“Your Desire”

Don't give up,
It's all up to you
Pick up the steam,
Don't give it up
Start the fire,
It's all on you,
Live the dream,
Follow your desire.

“Bleeding Heart”

When I lost you it cut like a knife,
My heart bleeds until the rest of my life,
Now to find what I need,
So that I can thrive.

Make life a reflection of the fantasy that you want.

"Power Play"
What a game
Just another power play
Don't know what to do
What was her name

When all the dragons are slain
And the king is dead
We can all live without pain
With a clear head

She said
Don't look back
To the memories of yesterday

She said
Don't look back
To what I saw in you Need to change my dreams inside
The feelings I can't hide

She said
Don't look back
It's so hard to hide
The pain inside

We cry for you-why did you leave
We cry for you-you were so young
We cry for you-it's hard to believe
We cry for you-another song to be sung

She said
Don't look back
To the feelings that will fade away
What a game
Just another power play

What is this Animal
We are Animals
To fight to stay alive
Just leave me alone
It is what we strife
For us all you have known: Why?

I get a rush from the marsh of life
The unknown future
Makes me feel alive

“Voices Remain”

As I spoke the words echoed through every bone in my body. She got up to mix another drink that filled my heart with thoughts of a past lover. I knew she would be gone when I opened my eyes and saw the door close slowly behind her.
Alone again is where I will remain until the voices in my head stop calling her name.

Every bodies working Working to be free some how Show me show me now
What will be will be in me
One and all together set me free

Oh! The sounds of summer:
I hear the kids playing baseball one block away.
The whispering of the breeze as the trees sway.
Birds singing as they fly away.
Those are the sounds I like the most any day.

What you want can never be Without looking deep inside
Your desires you can't hide Open your mind and you will see want can be Just let go and start the fires

“Island in the Sky”

I am your life line so reach out and grab my hand,
Your life line can take you to a new land,
It's rough out there so I have been told,
Your life can be bought and sold,
Watch the signs along the way,
It's a game you have to play,
And the rules can change every day,

I see through blinded eyes...The truth is yet untold,
I see through blinded eyes...For answer you can not hide,
I see through blinded eyes...Your soul I see it has been sold,
I see through blinded eyes...And I will not stand by your side,
All this time I didn't see the lies and now it's time to say goodbye,

My friend I say...Let yesterday fade to blue.
My friend I say...Today is going to shine.
My friend I say...The truth will unfold onto you.
My friend I say...Don't be afraid to cross the line.
It is the only game to play and you will find your way.

Yesterday is gone...No regrets.
Yesterday is gone...Say goodbye to rejection.
Yesterday is gone...This is what you get.
Yesterday is gone...When you feel the emotion.
Your dreams become one and you will sing the song.
Just jump in...Read the signs along the way.
Just jump in...The water is fine.
Just jump in...Forget what they may say.
Just jump in...Reach out and grab the line.
It will begin and in the end you will win.

So stay awake and play to win.
And in the end a gift will be send to you.
I am your life line so reach out your hand.
Your life line will take you to that Island in the sky.

“Dinosaur’s Knocking On The Door”

As I get old, I get sore, the dinosaur breathing down on me some more., knocking on my door..

It’s not out of reach,
What we crave,
The fun to ride the wave,
Watch below the jagged reef,
Then hit the beach,
With such relief.

“Put Out the Hate”

Like a fire put your hate out and stomp it down to the ground. Put your hate out and stomp it all around, smother it. Put your hate out and suffocate it. Hear the sounds of hate and put it out like a raging fire.

It was that beautiful thing. That beautiful force that brought you what you wanted and once received then you will realize it was that beauty that got you what you needed.

Standing in the dark,
Missing the sun,
The glow in your heart,
Grows to have some fun.

Changes: Forever Mine

Until we hear, until we listen, to the sounds crying out to be heard, with no changes, we can never progress, staying always the same, with a little less, until there's nothing left to change.

noun

1. abstract realism variation of; distorted slightly to express using less detail and a more board approach with line and color, as in a painting, that expresses an intense emotional feeling for the viewer: The artist used Expressoism in all her paintings.

My thoughts run wild,
To imagine what I can't see,
To ride high,
On the wings of a butterfly.

Sometimes I wonder what I do is in vain,
Searching day and night,
But it's alright,
It helps relieve the pain.

I can feel the flame burn a hole
Raging fire
Raging fire
Raging fire in my soul

"Fire in the Night"

Flying in the daylight
Nothing you can see
If only you can hear
The fire in the night

On that lonely night
It will all come clear
We fell so far behind

I knew it would be alright
I felt the fire in the night Endless summer flight

Lightning striking twice
At the fire in the night

"No Fear"

Burn it down,
Down to the ground,
Smash it all around,
Kick it punch it out,
Hold it and make it drown,
So it can't be grown and hold me down.

When dreams don't come true,
Some nightmares will do,
Just turn light on the dark,
And hope becomes real.

"Spill Your Heart"

You knew from the start,
It's was up to you,
Gotta pay your dues,
Cut your soul and split,
It's all on you,
You know what to do,
Just give a little bit,
And spill your heart.

"Let's Play A Game"

As the wind invisibly blows through the trees,
I hear it call your name,
Ask the wind and it will answer,
Then we can play a game.

"Live Life"

Live life to the fullest
We're not here long
If you should get lost
Just sing a song
And live your life
For the most

"Criminal Activity"

It must be
Criminal Activity
The way I feel the fire
I need a new identity

It's got to be
Criminal Activity
The way I feel for you
Don't want to hide by desire

It's a crime to be
So in love with you

Don't want to be Trapped into loving you

"Scars of Life"

When something
Bad happens in your life
The bleeding will stop
The wound will heal
The scars of life
When something
Good happens in your life
Block out anything
Bad happening
Think about how something Good will happen again
An again, an again, an again...

"Friend"

To be a true friend
We don't need to defend For what we are No one can offend
A true friend

"Run"

You can run
But you can't hide
I will see you on The other side

What you think is what you seek Every thought brings you closer to your dream
Just think!
Just dream!
Just try!
Just do!
Hold your head high
Run don't walk
Don't live the lie
Run don't walk
To your dream it's just ahead
Until your desire is fed and you can't run no more!

Going to places I've never been Why does it seem so hard
I knew you would understand
So reach out your hand

I had to find the right road
Watch the sign along the way
It's tough out there so why complain
There's always another play
So I have been told

I knew you would understand
So reach out your hand
Walking down roads I've never seen
I knew I had to find

You move me, ruin me, like an Earthquake, you shake me, break me, down to the ground, heartache bound, again, we will see what it will be.

“Lie To Me”

For all the things I bet
You met to me
Start a fight and walk away
See you again another day
Why did I not see
The one I found inside you
Was wrong for me
Run and hide so you can't lie again

I am my worst enemy
So I take a mind enema
And flush all that stuff out of me
Then I can see
The friend that I have become

Tomorrow is Yesterday will be gone
Find another game to play
It will not take long
Just remember today
And sing another song
For time you can not borrow

You are like the lead in a pencil.
Surrounding yourself with protection and showing only what you want to reveal. You can always delete your mistakes with the eraser on the end.

“When you have decided what your true desire is and what you really want think about it a thousand times a day. Doors will start to open for your desires and wants to find you.”

The dream lives,
The nightmare dies,
Don't believe the lies,
The truth is in your eyes.

Only a small piece,
Of the very best,
You can increase,
By revealing the rest.

The roll of the dice,
Couldn't even buy her,
She's like fire,
It will take water and ice,
To wash away the desire.

Wild wolfs howling,
Can't scare me away,
I hear you growling,
Calling me out to play.

What's happening to our world?

Nature adapts to it's environment. When you overpopulate anything in nature, drastic changes happen and it gets wilder. In spite of danger and hardship we will survive. We are nature. We will adapt. We will remain alive and well.

Life Is: Just like going to the Dentist.
You have to get a little pain to get rid of the big pain.

She's a red hot honey got her red flags flying,
Red hot honey and I'm not lying,
Red hot honey you can chase her to bed,
Red hot honey will mess with your head.

Reach for the stars,
Feed your heart with love,
With a hunger you can not starve.

It's a beautiful thing,
The feeling I have inside, It's a beautiful thing,
Listen to the birds sing, It's a beautiful thing,
The love I can't hide.

"Your Smile"

For every mile, the pain and sorrow, too hard to keep, so I weep, for you are gone and stay forever in my heart, time I can't borrow, and the tears wash my eyes, to see again my love your smile.

-DMc

Rewriting the ending,
To the script of my life,
From the beginning you were mine.

Looking for the energy,
Spark the flame and scream.

I can't stop believing,
I won't see you no more,
I can't stop believing,
I won't feel you no more,
I can't stop believing,
How you walked out that door,
I can't stop believing,
You don't love me no more,
I won't stop believing,
How you wore out my heart
Eo beat no more for you.

"Sometimes"
Whatever it will be Sometimes we need
To be together
Sometimes we need
To be alone
No matter what the weather
Just call me on the phone
Your still the one for me

"Season in the Wind"
As the wind invisibly blows
Through the trees
I wonder where you are
I wonder where you've been

It doesn't really matter
The wind keeps the answer
To questions I haven't seen

So tell the wind your reason
And I will surely know
The seasons in the wind
Are blowing through the trees

We come for peace,
It's hard to find,
To be so kind,
It's not hard to please.

"No Place in Heaven"

Suicide bomber,
Watch what you choose,
For you will surely lose,
Suicide bomber,
Don't believe the lies,
For you will only die,
Suicide bomber,
We all know that it's true,
There's no place in Heaven for someone like you.

Lost soul,
Stuck in a hole,
Like a puppy without a home,
They must roam.

Want to play a game?
You know it's name,
We all want to play,
It's not a sin if we both win,
We all win so stay and play.

Turn me on, turn me no,
One more shot of whiskey,
Kiss me, kiss me,
Then I'll be gone, gone.

"Criminal In Me"

It's criminal activity,
The way I feel for you,
The criminal in me,
A real sensitivity to you,
Is the criminal you see,
So lock me up throw away the key,
No more criminal in me.

"Seasons in the Wind"

As the wind invisibly blows through the trees,
I wonder where you are,
I wonder where you've been,
So tell the wind your reason,
And I will surely know,
The seasons in the wind,
Are blowing through the trees.

"Our Future"

Your playing with the future
And you know that it is true
Stop playing with our future
Or we will surely loose

Your playing with the future
And this should be the last Stop playing with the future
In the darkest of the past

Don't give it up
It's all up to you
Don't give it up
It's all on you

As I travel on down the road
I see visions that are yet untold
As I unravel I am heard to say
I see you playing all the way

What are we to do
Leave it all up to you
Don't give it up
It's all on you

Your playing with the future
And you think that you are hiding
Your playing with the future
For reasons that are riding

We're just a grand experiment,
Like mice trapped in a maze,
Looking for wonderment,
Wanting to be praised.
Forever searching,
Never reaching,
And always amazed.

Riding to Montana, blue rivers wide skies, riding to Montana, hiding the crazy away, riding to Montana, I see in my eyes, riding to Montana, find another place to play,

My little girl,
Standing in the dark,
I'm the light,
That guides you through the night,
In the cold,
I'm the blanket that keeps you warm,
Hunger pains,
I'm the food that fills you full,
Your my world,
You will always be my little girl.

"No Tears"
You see my dear,
To have no fear,
A kiss is the only cure,
To dry your tears.

In the darkness of the night,
Emotions cut like a knife,
Like tattoos that will only fade,
Time heals the pain to make it right, again.

On A Wing And A Prayer Praise and protect the children for they will stand in protest while we stood still silent on a wing and a prayer.

"Fantasy Hill"
Take all your pills,
To climb fantasy hill,
And find all your thrills,
The ones that kill on top of fantasy hill.

Make it real from the start, break the seal to my heart.

From: DreamMaker inc.

By using the most recent technology and social market research we have developed a product that will take us into the next century. So amazing and yet so simple you will not believe how this product could change the world.

It is called "The Imagination Extractor"

When placed in any room it will make you imagination run so wild you will think of things you could never before dream would come true.

Live to Dream!

Call today to order: The Imagination Extractor

(TRUTH)

Don't block the truth,

We only need to hear the thoughts,

Break the locks,

Then listen when it speaks to you.

"Psycho Killer: Babies with a Gun"

Babies with a gun, bullets rip through the bodies, he likes to watch them run, puts he's mind at ease, babies with a gun, like to play, just another day, to have some fun.

"Even Flow"

Meditate your soul,

Reach deep back down,

Where the emotions grow,

Breathe it out and relax to an even flow.

Some of the finest minds,
Like to cross the line,
But they will find,
There's nowhere to hide,
On the other side.

From afar he looks like a star,
Up closer you see a loser,
Has nothing at stake,
Because he's a fake.

"Fly Away"

Talking to you is like,
Seeing colors in the night,
Playing a guitar without strings,
Sneezing with your eyes open,
It has to be right,
When I spread my wings,
And fly to what I was hoping.

"Playtime"

Let the tears flow,
Take it slow,
And wash the pain away,
So you can come out and play.

Dreams make me feel worn I knew,
When someday never comes,
Look what I have become,
When you are reborn and start anew.

"Rare Diamond"

Cold like a rare diamond, Sold to the highest,
Bold as a lion,
Runs with the finest.

Nothing to lose,
It's what you choose,
With no regrets,
Push the limit,
Go out and get it.

Good talent is judged on how the viewers perceive and agree on collectively.

Traveling on a stormly sea,
Calling to me,
Wanting to be,
Deserted on an island for the free.

The flavor of tomorrow,
Is the taste of time,
What I borrow,
Is never mine.

“Truth in You”

If it's a part of you,
Bring it out,
You know it's true,
It's a part of you,
Sing it out loud,
You know what it's about,
Bring out that part of you,
Bring out the truth in you,
The truth in you is a part of you so bring it out.

Don't need it no more,
I'm not amused,
Open the door,
And find the good news.

It just may be,
That Jesus walked on water,
So when you walk on me,
I hope it makes you feel better.

Walking around life,
With your eyes shut tight,
I can hear the cries,
Howling in the night.
Blinded by the lies,
The truth is in sight.

“Hide Your Love”

I'm going to ride,
Ride you to the end of the line,
I'm going to ride,
Ride your love until there is no more,
I'm going to ride,
Ride you so far that you can't hide,
Hide your love.

Without any strife,
The game is the same,
Without any shame,
Play the game,
The game of life.

When you get down to the ground,
Gagged and bound,
Then you hear that sound,
You get back up and turn it around.

“Shine On”

They use the power of the dead and gone,
They sing their songs,
In the middle of the cold cold night,
And it will be just fine,
Just watch them shine, shine on so bright.

“The Hurricane”

She’s got a love like a hurricane,
That drives me insane,
El Niño’s cousin in the flesh,
Her pounding waters keep it fresh,
She lifts me up, out and away,
With more room to play,
So I am here to stay,
Going after the hurricane.

“Pills That Kill”

For the people who hate,
This ones for you,
It’s way to late,
So take the pills,
The ones that kill,
Nothing you can do,
So just be still.

A small speck of white light shines down from heaven that comforts us and helps heal the hole in our heart since we’ve been apart.

From the Golden Chalice I drink from the jagged edge,
Have no fears with no regrets,
I jump from the ledge,
And fly away far until the sun sets.

The misguided fool will trip on the shadow of his own stupidity.

When Mother Earth gets tired of being raped,
There will be no escape,
She will bring us back to her womb,
To be born again and start anew.

When you play the game,
A lot of psychological bullshit being thrown about,
Give them a number with a name,
As you can see,
To rough for me,
I think I'll just sit this one out.

"River of Gold"

There's an old legend in the deserts of Arizona, many miles long, runs a underground river lined with gold. If the legend is true, whoever finds the river will become the richest, most famous person in the world.

So, dig deep in your soul, open your heart and maybe someday you will find your river of gold and become the richest person in your world.

"When Angels Appear"

Whenever I want to go to that mystical magical place,
I look in the mirror and see your face,
Now I know it will be alright,
Standing behind me,
It's you I see,
When angels appear in the mirror at midnight.

When you hide the lie,
You die inside.

“Love Addiction”

Flying high in the clouds above,
Your love is like a drug,
Just one more hit,
And a little nudge,
Will get me back in it,
No need to judge,
My addiction to love.

The ultimate adventure,
In the distant future,
It may be coming soon,
Put your space suit on,
In zero gravity,
And ride the zip line to the moon.

Back to the Basics

DIY - Homemade - Made From Scratch

When we stop being consumers corporations will die.

“The Politician’s Promise”

Politicians come and go,
With promises they can’t keep,
I feel like a sheep,
Wondering around in my sleep,
Oh! Say it isn't so,
The promises run to deep.

“Silent Heart”

Be very quiet from the start,
And listen to the breeze,
The rhythm of your heart,
Is blowing through the trees.

The revolution has begun,
Protestors in the street,
The corrupt will be hung,
We will defeat.

“Unknown Slave”

To be a slave and not know it,
Diamond spark persuasion,
You don’t see the invasion,
Golden ring you wear it,
Velvet shackles will hold you,
And the skies forever blue,
It’s how you will behave,
To be the unknown slave.

Our greatest fear or phobia is only but a delusion of the mind.

"Our Love"

We thought we had losted,
Our precious love,
Until we looked,
Into each others eyes,
No need to cry,
And then we made,
Sweet passionate love,
And now our love,
Fits like a glove.

"Rose Bud"

Live in the moment now,
You know how,
Like a rose bud in the morning,
Glow in the glory.

Sometimes when the bad(mad)ness is taking over and the road seems long, hold tight and keep moving for the goodness will always prevail.

"Blood of the Gods"

Dragon's breathe burning down on me,
Feel the heat deep in my soul,
The blood of the Gods,
I drink from the jagged edge,
The taste is so sweet,
Make you crying for more.

"Blue Heart"

Coming back to remembering you,
Memories couldn't come to soon,
When I really knew,
Thinking of you,
Made my heart feel so blue.

"High Tide"

Like the rising tide,
Slides into the sea,
Your love I can't hide,
From loving you,
Full moom high tide,
It's what it will be.

Go back to school,
Don't be fooled,
By the trickery,
And your find victory.

"Broken Mirrors"

Broken promises,
Things we need to share,
Forgotten dreams,
Turn into nightmares,
Like looking at pieces of a shattered mirror, Thinking of you and wanting you near.

Sounds come around,
To the hard playing band,
Kicking boots up taking a stand,
With beer in hand,
Get down to the ground.

"Make Believe Rebel"

If you must play with the Devil,
You go down low,
Your lonely soul burns,
No where else to go,
Another make believe Rebel.

Break the lock,
Throw away the key,
From a distant I could see,
It was no shock,
You are just a fantasy.

"Tabooz"

Tabooz to you,
Learned at school,
Don't judge the fool,
For they may rule.

"Promises and Kisses"

Broken promises,
And shattered dreams,
My believing falls on me,
All that I miss are your kisses.

I don't play with fools,
You see,
They don't know the rules,
So let them be.

Like a new app that does everything,
Just push her buttons,
And watch her sing.

“Even Flow”

Meditate your soul,
Reach deep back down ,
Where the emotions grow,
Breathe it out and relax to an even flow.

Heart to heart,
It would be fine to do,
Connect a zip line,
From me to you.

“Down ‘N’ Dirty”

Getting Down ‘N’ Dirty
Kissing the floor
Tasting a little gritty Need some more
She’s made for speed that’s all I need

“It’s impossible.” said pride.
“It’s risky.” said experience.
“Give it a try.” whispered the heart.

“The Light”

Life is all around
Listen and hear the sound
Death is at your feet
Waiting for the last heartbeat
Have no fear of the night
For someday you will see the light

“Unbreakable”
I have an adamant spirit
So when I fall
I get back up
And can take another hit

Lead with your heart, and the mind will follow.
Let the love start, and get rid of the sorrow.

“The Stench”

The stench I smell can't take anymore
Catching my breath I hit the floor
Run and hide my pride away
Nothing left for me to do
Will I see you again someday
I will be waiting by the shore
Bring a toy so we can play the day away
I hope you will want to stay
Hello goodbye see you another day
And I will cry no more

“Everyday”

We walked together when you were here
How that you have gone away
I am the one that has won the day
For you walk by my side so near Everyday my dear

When your dreams have all faded
And you have nowhere to go Find another dream and make it so

“Sky in My Mind”

I woke up this morning
Feeling so alive
I want to go soaring
Into a new high
Up to the sky in my mind
Where I will hide

Black crow screaming
Out his lonely cry
Another joins in
And off they fly
With the light beaming
Wings flying so high

"Liar"

You're a liar
Don't you see
It doesn't matter to me
Step on the fire
To my desire
And let it go out the door
I don't need you no more

Fourth of July
Say goodbye and explored in the sky
The past will not last
Don't ask why and cry
A tear for me and you will see

For what it's worth
Hold on tight to your dreams
And never let go
It's not always what it seems
But in the end you will know
That it is the only truth

Shake the devil off my back
Free at last Stay on track

"New Start"

Like a chain wrapped around my heart
You tear me apart
Pulling me down low to the ground
Beating like a drum forever bound Down, down we must go and make a new start

I sing the blues on the inside
A good laugh will break the mood
Your dreams will take you for a ride
Where happiness is not so rude

"The only reality is what we have experienced until now and than different ones can be achieved."

~Strong Dreams Strong Reality~
"Make Your Wildest Dreams Come True"
Think it and believe it.
One of the most important things you can do is project images in your mind of what...

My head is spinning thinking of you.
That's just the way it is so what do we do.
Stop this Merry-Go-Round.
It's not fun any more.

"When you and I know,
No matter how low,
The truth it will show."

~My Own Two Eyes~
I have tried and got burnt
Watch out for the lies
You might get hurt
I don't believe it
If I don't see it
With my own two eyes

Does anybody know
To get to the top of the mountain
You have to open the door to your heart and walk through the forest first.

I preciously admire the way you make me feel when you look at me with that love in your eyes.
Diamonds are Forever!
Can't hide from the lies!
I will leave you never!

"Your love is like a Merry-Go-Round, when and where you stop I can be found."

"Your love is like an icicle,
And I knew from the start,
To melt your heart,
It would take a miracle."

"I can't keep away from howling at the moon and it can't be too soon to get out and play."

"Undercover Lover"
Please go away
Loving another lover
I don't have time to play
Hiding undercover
Maybe some other day undercover lover

Young love has all the time
Watch and you will find
It will never go away

"Don't be so judgmental of others, be more compassionate and understanding from where they're coming so you know where your going."

Girls getting older
Standing out in the cold
You just want to hold her
And never let her go

Passionate trust in us
We're on our way
Can't hide the lust
Time to go
Make it so
Go out and play

With broken wings
I can still soar
Over a flaming forest
The heat rises me up Until my soul sings

A teacher can't hesitate for enthusiastic perfection to give an excellent responses.

What you think and do
Will become real
What you foresee
You will feel

The bigger you dream
The bigger you get Dream it
Believe it
Get it
Live it

If you are doing this you can't do that If you want to do it right
You have to light up the night
If you want to find your bliss
You have to steal another kiss
Walking home in comfortable shoes
I will choose you

"My Maria"

When you cry
When you smile
When you look at me
What you see
What we feel
You're the one that sets me free, my Maria

It's like walking into a dark scary cave. Once you get past the dimly lit entrance it opens into a large bright warm cavern and you know you will be safe at home.

Look! Look!
It won't hurt
But don't you touch
It's all too much
Get to close
And you will get burnt

"River in Me"

Stand by the river,
The river in me,
Wash your worries away,
Standing by the river,
From beginning to the end,
At every bend,
The river is my life,
Where I will forever be,
Come stand by the river in me.

"Candy"

Your kiss was hot and sweet
Burning down to my soul
Even though
The candy was a treat to behold

As I go through life and get older I have realized that life is weird. Very strange; bizarre things I have seen and learned. The unknown.

"Excuses"

What I say what I do,
More promises to you,
What I said what I've done,
No excuses I have none,
To say sorry again,
Without the pain.

"The Hangman"

To live forever,
My love could die tonight,
Save my heart,
Shoot the hangman,
Before he pulls the lever.

"Life is Weird"

It's in a person's destiny and fate that's really a supernatural; uncanny very strange; bizarre thing this life that we live.
There is only one word I can think of that can describe life, and it is weird. Life is just really weird.

“Cry Away the Pain”

For just awhile,
Standing in the rain,
My emotions run wild,
Like a little child,
I will find another time,
To cry my eyes to wash,
Away the pain.

“Cold Blooded”
Blood on the light switch,
Casings on the floor,
Murder brings out the bitch,
Don’t want to hear no more.

Standing outside your window
In the rain,
Wanting back inside,
No more pain,
Run and hide,
And get it on down the road,
Get it, get it,
Get it on down the road.

Spin to Win-
Taken by her breathe,
That is the wind,
Blowing me away,
Spin around to win.

She looked back at me,
The glare I could hardly see,
All the dreams I have never seen,

“Running in the Night”

Your my wrong,
To be so right,
I will be gone,
To run from the sun in the night.

“Diamond in the Field”

As I walk along struggling to find my dreams,
All these years waiting to be found,
I kick the ground,
Look down,
Right in front of me the biggest diamond,
And all my dreams have come true.

Tricked into believing,
You would leave me never,
Knew you where leaving,
Our love is forever.

“Memories”

Can't stop, the memories of you,
Your face is so clear,
Can't stop, the memories of you,
When your standing so near.

I reach out my hand, you turn and walk away,
Take another stand, and greet another day.

Can't stop, the memories of you,
Your voice I can hear,
Can't stop, the memories of you,
Say goodbye to you my dear,
Can't stop, the memories of you,
Come back another day.

Ugly inside ugly out
It's not how you look
What you see in me
You make me feel

Seek and see the inner me Peak and let me be.

"Tribute"

Stand next to your fire. Now that's what I'm talking about, dig this, whatever never mind here we are now with the creative waters running wild in The Great Northwest. With Jimi Hendrix and Kurt Cobain burning the flame that will eternally impact generations, we thank you.

Hit the vein where the gold falls,
A river of silver flows,
Diamonds sparkle in the night sky,
Pearls shin from the ocean floor,
Rubies glow from Dorothy's shoes,
And the emeralds remind me of you.

No defense
One of the privileged few Sitting on the fence
Enjoying the view

I'm yours to take into the light,
Not looking back,
To relax,
And kiss you goodnight.

"Your Way"

Everything can be made your way,
The way you play,
How you pay,
Everything you say,
Can be here to stay,
When everything comes your way.

Riding high on the scale she's more than a ten and we know where she's been hiding in Marilyn Monroe.

Blow in my ear
Kick start my heart
You know what I want to hear
Let's make a new start
Kick start

"Baggage"
Check your baggage from the past
Don't need it any more
You knew it wouldn't last Leave it at the back door
So take a chance
Dance and have a blast

"Lover to Hater"
I didn't know you changed your profession,
From lover to hater,
I heard your confession,
So see you later.

See you coming wanting to play,
Walk away,
Don't want to make that drunken mistake,
Knew you wanted me to stay,
Didn't want to wake to what's at stake,
So let's make it work some other day,
Walk away.

On the wing of a butterfly,
You will sing,
The fantasy it will bring,
Into a new high.

You dug a tunnel through my heart and from the start
I knew you wouldn't stop until I saw the light than I knew it would be alright.

Be aware of the danger
Where ever you go
Open your eyes wider
And it will show

Feeling a little weak
After been bitten by the white snake
She had me her sights
Than shook her head
Drew her fangs for another bite

Fill up my cup
With your loving juice
Can't get enough
Just keep it loose

What you did and what you said
Broke my heart down to the bone
Can't forgive when it's still in my head
You can't hurt what you don't own

You can feel the warmth of Heaven I've been told,
When you walk through the fires of Hell behold, Stand up and walk down the road and Yell!
I'm coming home.

"Star Dust"

Standing in the morning dew
Smelling the dust from the stars
Wondering how far
As they fade into the light

In my head is a fantasy
That I want to see
I knew it would be
That I could find my ecstasy

"inYour Smile"

Not to wild to ride,
inYour smile-
want to glide , inYour smile-
My pride I can't hide , inYour smile-
Run another mile , inYour smile-Fun to ride, inYour smile-want to hide, inYour smile-I will find, No where to go but,
inYour smile.

"Ride the Lion"

Ride the lion with no fear,
Watch the lying,
Taste your tears,
No more crying,
You can make it oh so clear,
Searching far and near,
Ride the lion,
Fly high as the eagle soars,
Listen for the lions roar,
And ride the lion with no more fears.

The fragile mind can break at anytime, run.
Listen and you will hear the chime, hide.
Watch for those that make a rhyme, fight.
And eventually you will find, feel.
The answer was hiding deep inside, safe.

It never varies,
Like a ripe bing cherry,
The taste I miss,
Is your sweet kiss.

To be so alive,
With a soul made of diamonds,
And a heart of gold,
Come to realizes,
You can't be sold.

To many people running away from nothing to hide

Just call, or holler, I am here near, just call, my name, on your lips, just call, my heart skips a beat, no heat, just call, so I can breathe, again I see, what maybe. Just call

Placed a bet didn't hear the alarm,
Lost it all,
What happened to my lucky charm,
Had a ball.

"Amanda"
Hey! Amanda...
To be the one you ran to,
Sitting waiting to roam,
Where we belong,
Hey! Amanda...
Make it so and come home.

Censor this no more.
Censor that no more.
Censor me and you know where your at?
Out that door!

These aren't onion tears,
Running down my face,
Can't hide my fears,
Put me in my place.

Be Like The Duck
The duck can swim in the pond and get rained on and the water rolls off them.
So, if you have a problem and are worried, be like the duck and just let it roll off you.

Talking to you is like playing a guitar with no strings,
You make me spin,
Until my head rings.

Fourth quarter thirty seconds to go,
Goal to goal,
Last call ready for the show,
Get that hole in one,
For some fun let's get spun,
Get it done until we have won.

Be caution in all that you do,
Be happy in all that you do,
Be love in all that you do,
Be proud in all that you do,
Become all you want,
In all that you do!

Dance as you go,
Out the door,
Dance as you go,
Waiting to score,
Dance as you go and get some more.

Down on one knee,
The one I see,
The one I feel,
The one I need,
The one that makes me bleed when you leave.

"Being James Dean"
Taking the last train leaving,
Leaving you all behind me,
Where I gotta be,
Running like a wildfire,
Get what I believe in,
With all my desire being James Dean.

Like when the sky is crying rain,
I can feel your pain.

The voice of the World speaks but can't be heard with all of the garbage it keeps.

To be hard as steel
And soft as cotton candy
Taste sweet
But hurts
When you bite the wheel

Dogstar hanging in the evening sky
Couldn't be any serious
When I see you with blinded eye
To be so curious not to hide
And enjoy the ride

Insulting words that hurt,
For those that want to cry,
Treat me like dirt,
And I will say goodbye.

"Hurry to Worry"
Escape into my world
All curled up without a worry Shut down
On the ground
Home bound
I'm not in a hurry to worry

Winter midnight in Sarasota Running with the circus clowns Waiting for the sunrise
Let's ride
High in the sky I realize
A dream
I could not hide

The disguise you wear to hide, I knew from the start, you could get away with robbing the bank to my heart.

"Dragon Slayer"

You can't slay the Dragon without a sword.
You can't walk miles without your shoes.
You can't chop a tree without an axe.
You can't love someone without loving yourself.

Remember today
Walking along the river
Come sip from my wine
We will live forever
In the valleys of our mind
Where we will play

"All The Way"

I can see the rainbow disappear all the way,
I can hear the bird sing a song all the way,
I can taste the sweet of the candy all the way,
I can touch the softness of a flower all the way,
With all my senses I can feel all the way.

I don't think or worry about how long I might know someone. No reason but forever. So, I will enjoy you now.

The person that is 'Ahead of Their Time' does not know it, lonely, living in the future. Is not recognized for their achievements until the past catches up with them. If lucky is still alive but, usually are dead and gone.

I don't want to be hungry and down, so down on the ground that I had to eat dirt.

Strange promises not met to keep Playing me as the fool
Like an angel you flew
Out of my dream as I sleep

When you hear a knock
And nobody is there
Step back beware
The lies will get you high

"One Bullet Away"

Psychopathic way
We know you're out there
You want to come out and play
Stay away or you will loose
With every crack of the bullet
We will choose to put you away

Yesterday than today Becomes tomorrow
As I ride into the sunset
Time I can't borrow
I will place a bet
You will want to stay

Your heart I will find Beyond death forever
I see you in my mind
You will leave me never

Always trying to hide
Running kicking screaming Messing with my mind
I thought I was dreaming
You were so kind
To stay by my side

We must slay the dragon
And kill the monsters
For when they are gone
You will find your treasures

Survive violence.
It's not humane to harm another human.
Never justified always judged.

It only goes to show,
We must all know,
Only fools follow the rules.

I can hear you calling from far away,
If I just say please,
I can feel your love,
On the warm summer breeze.

It might seem strange,
But when the cryings over,
We all need a change,
With a four leaf clover.

Knew it real well,
To act like a rebel,
Fight like hell,
And stomp on the devil.

A bleeding heart,
Needs a fix,
To get it's kicks,
Like no other undercover.

May the child in your heart,
Never get caught sleeping,
Right from the start,
Keep me from weeping.

Like a slice of sweet cherry pie,
I want to taste your loving,
Look at me eye to eye,
You are like no other.

To be so blave,
Always the slave,
If only you could see,
No word for free.

When the music stops,
Waiting for the next song to play,
And your feet want to stomp,
Rocks got the right of way.

I don't want to love again,
You steal my heart and throw it away,
I don't want to love again,
I'm tired of the games you play,
Nothing to loose and nothing to gain.

Opinions of hatred will destroy your soul, that only love can fill the hole.

You can't choose where your born,
But you can choose where your going,
Grab life by the horns,
Be free like an eagle soaring.

It's not what it seems,
Like to see you again,
If only in my dreams.

"Alice in Wonderland"

You can take me to wonderland,
With your sweet perfume,
And bright blue eyes,
Without the lies,
I will make a stand,
And go with Alice in wonderland.

Fly with the wind,
On a butterflies wing,
Where ever you may roam,
Hear the birds sing,
To bring you back home.

"Midnight Sky"

Don't cry and say goodbye,
The light from your soul burns eternal,
With the speck of white light,
In the midnight sky.

My heart is pumping fuel,
Burning in my veins,
My blood is a raging fire,
Racing to get next to you,
The flames are getting higher,
You are my one disire.

The artist in us all
Can not be denied
Have a ball
Enjoy the ride
Step aside the lies
And give it a try

A new baby is born,
An old man dies,
Another page torn,
Can't hide the lies.

It's to bad I have to cry to wash the sad from my eyes.

When I say I'm doing fine,
Like the way I should,
I'm gonna knock, knock, knock on wood,
When you said you're be mine,
And I knew I could,
I'm gonna knock, knock, knock on wood.

"Dancing Shoes"
If I was to choose,
And this was a party,
I would be dancing with you,
In my new dancing shoes.

Hate to see so many wounded,
Can't wait for the day we can heal,
So we can kneel,
And hide the scars forever.

It does no good to complain,
Like trying to stop the rain,
Live with the pain,
Or it will make you go insane.

"Love Dove"
What is it for my love,
Losing you forever,
Can't hide the tears,
Forget you never,
Hide my fears,
And fly carefree like a dove.

When you get filled with emotion,
Cry as you may,
Look out over the ocean,
And see I am here to stay.

Conjure the King
Capture the Queen

I am not one to be bought and sold,
If you want be leave just tell me so,
Don't leave me out in the cold,
Just let me go.

Time Flies

When I go to bed I think it was just yesterday but it's today and soon it will be tomorrow. Live every moment now.

Magic eyes that see right through,
Wishing I could truly be with you,
Wondering if I really knew,
Magic eyes shine down,
Falling to the ground,
Your magic eyes I have found.

Trying to understand some people is like trying to see colors in the dark.
Impossibility.

Going six feet under tonight,
Until dawn I see the light,
Waking the dead,
Hirts my head,
Could be such a delight.

When your heart,
Beats the sound of love,
Never be apart,
And fly like the dove.

My Mama was an Ocean
I'm a son of a Beach
